

SNOW STORM BROKE RECORD IN RICHMOND

Fifteen Inches Fell in Fourteen Hours, Paralyzing Wires and Leaving City Dark.

TELEPHONE LINES OUT OF COMMISSION

Business Practically Suspended, Danger of Fire and Death Causing Mayor to Order All Street Lamps Cut Off—Rain Follows at Night.

To-Day's Weather

Virginia: Snow Wednesday, followed by fair, Thursday, with strong northerly, shifting to north-west, winds, diminishing.

COMING unexpectedly and at a time when it was calculated to cause the greatest damage and suffering, the heaviest snow-storm ever recorded by the local Weather Bureau for December, swept silently over Richmond yesterday, practically paralyzing business and traffic, and leaving the town in utter darkness last night. Because of the snapping of hundreds of electric wires, Mayor Richardson issued an order in the afternoon to cut off all arc lamp service, the entire police and fire departments being detailed for extra work.

Fifteen inches in fourteen hours. Between the hours of 4 A. M. and 6 P. M. the total snowfall was fifteen inches, the average street depth at 8 P. M. being eleven inches, showing that four inches melted in that space of time. The big storm in February, 1929, which continued for four days, left an aggregate snowfall of eighteen inches.

Yesterday's record, however, was the greatest of all, inasmuch as fifteen inches fell in fourteen hours. With the promise of high winds, the snow, which beat down incessantly, was scattered everywhere at a uniform depth. Reports from different parts of the city showed that many frail structures had toppled in; giant trees, loaded with the weight of snow, crashed in places, unable to stand the strain and burden, snapped, more than 1,200 telephones being thrown out of commission. Telegraph wires followed, the service being interrupted early in the day, and all trains were thrown out of gear, some in several hours behind schedule time.

Paralyzed Christmas Trade. Although there was a touch of the beautiful about the storm, it brought distress to merchants and shoppers alike, the losses of the day's trade amounting to thousands of dollars, with the promise of high winds, the snow, which beat down incessantly, was scattered everywhere at a uniform depth. Reports from different parts of the city showed that many frail structures had toppled in; giant trees, loaded with the weight of snow, crashed in places, unable to stand the strain and burden, snapped, more than 1,200 telephones being thrown out of commission. Telegraph wires followed, the service being interrupted early in the day, and all trains were thrown out of gear, some in several hours behind schedule time.

The physical damage in the city and outlying districts was, however, estimated by the Passenger and Power Company, the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph Companies, and the city being heavy losers. Until a more definite report is made it will be impossible to figure on the total loss, although it will reach far into the thousands.

Rain Follows at Night. Following the path lightly churned by regular intervals, though considering the depth of snow, the Passenger and Power Company was able to give a fairly good service. Few delivery wagons were sent out. Even the post-office force was crippled, it being found impracticable to make the usual box collections, though delivery carriers made the rounds as usual, after dark, and with great delay and suffering. The breaking of telephone wires caused the greatest amount of inconvenience, especially to shoppers who were unable to leave home. From 8 o'clock until long after midnight there was a light fall of snow and rain. Up to that hour there was much frost, but a fall of sleet gave promise of an ice coat to-day. At 2 o'clock this morning the snow was falling heavily.

Telephone Wires Crippled. Train service in and out of Richmond was in precarious condition last night, telegraph wires in all directions being crippled and trains being operated by blocks where they were not annulled altogether. Passenger service was maintained on all the routes, though in many cases without much regard to schedule. Both of the telegraph companies suffered seriously, the Postal being for a time almost put out of business, as far as its Richmond office is concerned. The Western Union managed to keep some of its connections open, and long distance telephone connections could be secured, in some cases by circuitous routes, so that the city was not entirely cut off at any time.

Just before midnight the Postal lost connection with Petersburg, the lines to the North having broken earlier in the day. Indications were that the service was worse between Richmond and Fredericksburg and between Petersburg and Richmond than elsewhere on the line, the impression being that Richmond was the storm centre. Gangs were organized in the night to start out at daybreak repairing in both directions, the management expressing the hope that connection North and South could be made during the day.

Greatest Trouble in City. At the Western Union office it was reported that there had been more trouble in the city of Richmond than on the country lines, call bells and loop service being dead. Night Manager (Continued on Seventh Page)

CAUGHT BY FLASHLIGHT

Councilman Reaching for Bribe When Picture Was Taken.

PITTSBURG, PA., December 22.—A flashlight photograph of a member of the Council in the act of accepting money from a decoy "promoter," it is said, will be one of the strongest features of the evidence to be presented to-morrow morning, when seven members of the Council and two former bank officials are to be given a preliminary hearing on charges of bribery, corruption, and other illegal acts, brought by the Voters' League. This picture, it is said, was taken in a private room in a downtown hotel last night, immediately before the Councilman was arrested.

No additional arrests were made to-day, it being held that it was likely to be made until after the hearing to-morrow morning. Besides the Councilman, the flashlight photograph is said to show a man of the Building and Construction Agency, of Scranton, Pa., who worked up the cases. This man is reported to have posed as a member of a firm anxious to see wooden paving blocks to the city and to have become very intimate with the Councilman. With other details of the hearing, it is alleged to have been induced to tell of the negotiations to secure the passage of legislation to name the members who were sharers in the bribe, and to say that the members were tired of promises and wanted to see some real money.

Was Reaching for Bills. The detective paid off $100 and $500 bills from a large roll, and, at all times, the flash was ignited. The Councilman, it is said, broke down and wept, and when he accused his companion of trapping him, the latter replied: "Then an officer appeared and made the arrest."

Bank Examiner Harrison Nesbit is expected to testify, including the previous evidence, books of the German National Bank accounting for $17,500, and that President W. W. Ramsey and Cashier A. A. Viscache of the Councilman, reached the city. The directors, admitted that that sum had been expended to secure the selection of the bank as a city depository. The officers and immediately asked and received the resignations of the officers. It is reported that some of the bribe money was paid out of the bank, and that the bank will be offered in evidence. It is practically admitted that a number of decoy contractors and promoters were introduced to the Councilman, and that many temptations have been offered members during the past six months.

WOULD HELP THE SOUTH

Mothers' Congress Pledges Assistance to Country Life Commission.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 22.—Whatever aid or influence the National Mothers' Congress can render towards the amelioration of Southern rural life conditions was pledged by the organization at a hearing given by the latter organization at the Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Scheff appeared with other members of the Mothers' Congress to offer the active co-operation of their organization in the work of the Country Life Commission, which is being organized by the Department of Agriculture. Professor Bailey, the chairman, expressed gratification at the interest manifested by the congress. Mrs. Wilson was an interested spectator and gave the commission some suggestions relative to conditions of farm life in the country. Dr. Charles W. Stinebaugh, of the Health and Marine Hospital Service, and a member of the Country Life Commission, described in detail the alleged unsatisfactory conditions of rural conditions in the South. Dr. L. H. Knapp, in charge of the Department of Agriculture's farm demonstration work in the South, advocated the need for the betterment of rural conditions in Southern States.

"One of the most important steps in this uplift work," said Dr. Knapp, "is to get the South out of debt, and I might say that he is less in debt now than he was five years ago. Secondly, I would revolutionize their homes, and, thirdly, I would revolutionize their schools and readjust them."

FURTHER STORIES OF CRUELITIES REVEALED

Vivid Details of Nightly Visitation Related and More Than Score of Gang's Members Are Identified—Murder of Rankin Only Incident of Gigantic Conspiracy.

UNION CITY, TENN., December 22.—When Mrs. Emma Jackson, one of the State's witnesses, this afternoon, in the night riders' trial, was excused from the stand, she turned to Judge Jones and said: "I will not leave this court without armed protection. I know these men are waiting for me."

Mrs. Jackson told a vivid story of several visits of the riders, corroborated Fred Fehring's testimony in many details, as did other witnesses, and identified by name at least twenty-seven members of the band. She was followed on the stand by her daughter, Miss Dora Jackson, an eighteen-year-old girl, who corroborated her mother. The last witness of the day was Will Russell, another alleged night rider, who has turned State's evidence. Russell testified before confession. He was trembling with fear, and could scarcely raise his voice above a whisper. The Attorney-General had to repeat most of his answers in order that the jury might hear them. Russell is under constant guard, but says he fears that he will be killed in spite of these precautions.

Russell's story was practically the same as that told by Fehring and corroborated it in every essential detail. Cross-examination was postponed until morning.

Whipped Father and Daughters.

Mrs. Jackson said the riders came to her home, forced her to dress and accompany them to her father's with her husband and daughter. They ordered her to kill some dogs she owned, and burned her father's house. She identified Garrett Johnson as the leader who testified before confession. He later, she declared, forced her to go to her father's half-sister, and said there had been some talking done. They whipped her father and then her sisters. She said she again recognized Garrett Johnson and several others. A third time she was forced to go to get rid of her sister's little child, because the latter had quarreled with another neighbor's child.
